Attorney for CARRILLO-LOPEZ

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Plaintiff,
v.
GUSTAVO CARRILLO-LOPEZ, Defendant.

Case No. 3:20-CR-00026-MMD-WGC

NOTICE OF SUPPLEMENTAL AUTHORITY

Counsel provides as additional authority regarding the McCarran-Walter Act of 1952 the relevant sections of the Senate Judiciary Report related to illegal reentry. The commentary refers exclusively to Mexicans and ultimately recommends carrying forward the 1929 legislation.¹

¹ Report: The Immigration and Naturalization Systems of the United States, Senate Committee on the Judiciary, S. Rep. No. 1515, 81st Cong., 2d Sess., at 654-56 (1950).

2 5. COMMENTARY

4 a. Suggestions relating to criminal provisions
5

6 The testimony of witnesses and the comment received from field
7 offices of the Immigration and Naturalization Service stressed certain
8 sections of the present law, particularly those relating to illegal entry
9 and smuggling of aliens. Most of the statements were devoted, not 10 so much to the law itself, but to difficulties encountered in getting 11 prosecutions and convictions, especially in the Mexican border area.
12 It was stated that many flagrant violators of the immigration laws
13 are not prosecuted or, if prosecuted, get off with suspended sentences 14 or probation. Apparently, the reason for this is the fact that the 15 aliens in most cases will be deported regardless of conviction and 16 sentence, and the crowded conditions prevalent in most prisons and 17 penitentiaries. On the other hand, in other sections of the country,
18 particularly on the east coast, a number of alien smugglers were suc-
19 cessfully prosecuted during 1949 and received appropriate sentences.

20 To enact legislation providing for a more severe penalty for illegal 21 entry and smuggling, as suggested by many, would not solve the 25 problem in the opinion of the subcommittee. If prosecutions and 26 convictions are difficult to obtain under the present statutes, to increase the penalties thereunder would make them even more difficult to obtain. Since the situation appears to be a local problem and a question of administration of present statutes rather than a legislative matter, it is believed that it should be left to the proper authorities to work out some solution.

1 penalty for subsequent offenses.

2 The provisions relating to reentry after deportation should be carried
3 forward in one section and apply to any alien deported for any reason
4 and provide for the same penalty.

5 The present perjury section should be repealed, inasmuch as aliens
6 making false statements under oath may be prosecuted under the 7 general perjury statute in title 18 of the Criminal Code.

8 The false personation provision has been reenacted in title 18 and 9 this section should be carried forward with a few minor changes.

10 The prevention of unauthorized landing of aliens should be amended 11 to provide for an administrative fine only. A criminal violation is 12 provided for in the section relating to the unlawful bringing or harboring 13 of aliens.

14 The requirement for the posting of immigration laws abroad and 15 the penalty imposed for failure to do so has become obsolete and 16 should be repealed.
